

NOMINATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Nomination Committee advises the Board with respect to matters relating to the composition of the Board. The Board identifies individuals qualified to become Board members and, consistent with criteria reviewed by the Nomination Committee and approved by the Board, recommends to the Board nominees for director for election at the next annual meeting of stockholders, including any incumbent directors.

I. Purposes

The purposes of the Nomination Committee (the "Committee") is to identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors (the "Board") and, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, recommend that the Board select the nominees for election as directors for the next annual meeting of stockholders.

It shall pre-screen and short list all candidates nominated to become a member of the Board in accordance with the qualifications criteria and grounds for disqualification provided in Annex "A" hereof.

II. Membership

The Committee shall be composed of three or more Directors, one of whom shall be an Independent Director, as determined by the Board pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission's definition of independence.

The Chairman and members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board. Vacancies shall be filled by election by the Board, and any member of the Committee may be removed by the Board.

III. Meetings

1. The Committee shall meet in accordance with the annual meeting schedule or at the call of the Chair or a majority of the members.

A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

2. Procedures fixed by the Committee shall be subject to any applicable provision of the Company's By-laws. Written minutes of each meeting shall be duly filed in the Company records, and reports of meetings of the Committee shall be made to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting following the Committee meeting and shall be accompanied by any recommendations to the Board approved by the Committee.

IV. Key Responsibilities

1. Develop and recommend for approval by the Board a set of criteria for Board membership.

Identify, evaluate, and attract qualified individuals to become Directors who satisfy such criteria.

Make recommendations to the Board regarding candidates for membership on the Board, including the slate of nominees to be proposed by the Board for election by the stockholders at the annual meeting of stockholders, as well as any nominees to be elected by the Board to fill interim vacancies.

2. Assess the contributions and independence of incumbent Directors in determining whether to recommend them for re-election to the Board at the annual meeting of stockholders.
3. Make recommendations to the Board on such matters as the retirement age, tenure and removal of Directors.
4. Manage the Board performance review process and review the results with the Board on an annual basis.
5. Recommend to the Board candidates for appointment to Board committees and consider periodically rotating Directors among the committees.
6. Review directorships in other public or private companies (excluding charitable or non-profit organizations) held by or offered to Directors and executive officers of the Company.

For this purpose, the Nomination Committee may consider the following guidelines in recommending to the Board for approval of the shareholders a maximum number of directorships for individual members of the Board:

- The nature of the business of the corporations which he is a director;
- Age, and physical capacity of the director,

The optimum number shall be related to the capacity of a director to perform his duties diligently in general.

On the other hand, the Chief Executive Officer and other executive directors shall submit themselves to a low indicative limit on membership in other corporate Boards. The same low limit shall apply to independent, non-executive directors who serve as full-time executives in other corporations. In any case, the capacity of directors to serve with diligence shall not be compromised.

7. Review and assess the channels through which the Board receives information and the quality and timeliness of information received.
8. Perform such other duties and responsibilities as are consistent with the purpose of the Committee and as the Board or the Committee deems appropriate.

V. Outside Advisors

The Committee shall have the authority to retain such outside counsel, experts, and other advisors as it determines appropriate to assist it in the full performance of its functions, including the sole authority to retain and terminate search firms used to identify candidates for membership in the Board, and to approve any such search firm's fees and other retention terms.

VI. Miscellaneous

Nothing contained in this Charter is intended to expand applicable standards of liability under statutory or regulatory requirements for the directors of the Company or members of the Committee. The purposes and responsibilities outlined in this Charter are meant to serve as guidelines rather than as inflexible rules and the Committee is encouraged to adopt such additional procedures and standards as it deems necessary from time to time to fulfill its responsibilities.

ANNEX “A”

- (vi) is not retained, either personally or through his firm or any similar entity, as professional adviser, by the Company, any of its related companies and/or any of its substantial shareholders, within the last two (2) years;

- (vii) has not engaged and does not engage in any transaction with the Company and/or with any of its related companies and/or with any of its substantial shareholders, whether by himself and/or with other persons and/or through a firm of which he is a partner and/or a company of which he is a director or substantial shareholder, other than transactions which are conducted at arms-length and are immaterial;
- (viii) is not a securities broker-dealer or a person holding office of trust and responsibility in broker-dealer firm which includes, among others, a director, officer, principal stockholder, nominee of the firm to the Exchange, associated person or salesman and an authorized clerk of the broker or dealer;
- (ix) was not a regular director of the Company who resigned or whose term ended within the last two (2) years;
- (x) was not the Chairman “Emeritus”, “Ex-Officio’ Directors/Officers or Members of any Executive Advisory Board, or otherwise appointed in a capacity to assist the Board in the performance of its duties and responsibilities within one (1) year.

When used in relation to a Company, “related company” means another company which is: (1) its holding company; (b) its subsidiary; or (c) a subsidiary of its holding company; and “substantial shareholder” means any person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than ten (10) percent of any class of its equity security.

IV. Temporary Disqualification

Any of the following shall be a ground for the temporary disqualification of a director:

- (i) Refusal to fully disclose the extent of his business interest as required under the Securities Regulation Code and its Implementing Rules and Regulations. This disqualification shall be in effect as long as his refusal persists;
- (ii) Absence in more than fifty (50) percent of all regular and special meetings of the Board during his incumbency, or any twelve (12) month period during the said incumbency, unless the absence is due to illness, death in the immediate family or serious accident. The disqualification shall apply for purposes of the succeeding election;

- (iii) Dismissal or termination for cause as director of any corporation covered by this Code. The disqualification shall be in effect until he has cleared himself from any involvement in the cause that gave rise to his dismissal or termination;
- (iv) Being under preventive suspension by the Company;
- (v) If the beneficial equity ownership of an independent director in the Company or its subsidiaries and affiliates exceeds two percent of its subscribed capital stock. The disqualification shall be lifted if the limit is later complied with.
- (vi) If any of the judgments or orders cited in the grounds for permanent disqualification has not yet become final.

A temporarily disqualified director shall, within sixty (60) business days from such disqualification, take the appropriate action to remedy or correct the disqualification. If he fails or refuses to do so for unjustified reasons, the disqualification shall become permanent.
